Mayor Healy to Swear in Nine New Police Officers Police Force Grows to 893 Sworn Officers

JERSEY CITY – Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy will swear in nine new Jersey City Police Officers during an 11 a.m. ceremony on Friday, December 12, 2008, at Margaret Williams Theater of New Jersey City University, 2039 Kennedy Boulevard.

Since 2004, more than 250 officers have been hired bringing the total number of officers on the force to 893, said Mayor Healy.

“When I took office four years ago, our police force was at a modern day low,” said Mayor Healy. “I am proud to say that we have built our force up and added more police officers to patrol our city streets. We continue to implement new technologies and new policing methods to actively bring down crime.

All media inquiries should be directed to Jennifer Morrill, Press Secretary to Mayor Jerramiah T. Healy at 201-547-4836 or 201-376-0699.
